

This Murthy from B'luru is a big-data star

He is also a Murthy and has a lot in common with legend NR Narayana Murthy:

Tech entrepreneurial streak, a house in Jayanagar, and looking into the future.

Arun Murthy, 35, is a product of RV Engineering College and a big-data star, write Shilpa Phadnis and Sujit John. He is a co-founder of Hortonworks, one of Silicon Valley's hottest startups which was the first to clock $100 million in revenue in just four years. In 2014 when the company went for an IPO, it touched a billion dollars in valuation. Page 17
